

NHLP is moving at the end of this summer.
To lighten our load, we're offering NHLP's Green Book and Supplement at special prices in our one-time Moving Sale!

Soon after we move our offices later this summer, NHLP's new Bryson Fellow will launch development of our next edition of the Green Book, to be released in the fall of 2018. In the meantime, maybe you'd like the convenience of having additional Green Books and Supplements in your office.

Has your copy of the Green Book suffered some wear and tear over the past 5 years? Could your office use brand-new copies of our 2012 manual or supplements to use until the new books come out? Let's help each other out! And the more you can help us, the more we can help you with unbelievable savings! WIN-WIN!!

Send mine today! I'd like ___ (#) manuals and ___ (#) supplements at these great prices!
