NHLP's
2010 Supplement
to HUD Housing Programs:
Tenants' Rights
(3rd Edition, 2004)

The laws, rules and practices affecting the HUD housing programs are subject to ongoing change and revision. NHLP's 2010 Supplement offers new information and the latest developments in the law on tenants' rights under the HUD housing programs since publication of the 3rd Edition of NHLP's HUD Housing Programs: Tenants' Rights ("The Green Book") in 2004.

Do your clients count on your help with application or eviction problems? Then you need to be informed on the latest changes with the 2010 Supplement.

Used in tandem with our 3rd Edition Green Book, the Supplement parallels the Green Book's issue-oriented format and serves as a quick and accessible reference for all cumulative changes, additions and revisions in the law since 2004.

Together, the HUD Housing Programs: Tenants' Rights (3rd Edition) and the 2010 Supplement provide the most up-to-date and comprehensive guide to the federal housing programs available anywhere.

With your purchase of the new 2010 Supplement, you also receive, at no charge, the latest edition of the CD-ROM document library that includes all documents from the 3rd edition and materials covered in the 2010 Supplement.

The mission of the National Housing Law Project is to advance housing justice for low-income people. Established in 1968, NHLP strives to increase and preserve the supply of decent, affordable housing; improve existing housing conditions; expand and enforce low-income tenants' and homeowners' rights; and increase housing opportunities for racial and ethnic minorities.
