

Green Book 6th Edition FAQ

What are the big content updates in the Green Book 6th edition?

The new 6th edition content includes:

- a new section on tenants' post-pandemic rights pursuant to The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act;
- updates to the federal housing programs pursuant to the Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act (HOTMA) of 2016;
- HUD's updated inspection standards according to the 2023 National Standards for the Physical Inspection of Real Estate (NSPIRE) final rule;
- affordable housing preservation with an updated section on the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program;
- Additional key updates include the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) 2022 Reauthorization, challenges to crime-free programs and nuisance property ordinances, advocate opportunities to influence the Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing process, Section 504, Title VI and more!

Will there be a print version of the 6th edition?

Yes, a print edition of the 6th edition will be available next year.

I am a current subscriber, do I need to take any action?

Current subscriptions will automatically update. No action is needed on your part.

How do I subscribe to the Green Book?

A Green Book subscription can be purchased on our website, here.

How can I access the new edition of the Green Book?

The 6th edition updates will automatically upload to current subscribers' Digital Libraries. Subscribers just need to login into the NCLC Digital Library, found here.

How do I use the digital library?

A quick start guide for the Digital Library can be found here. NCLC also provides an FAQ if you have any questions around administering your account.